Ombuds Services

The Society for Personality and Social Psychology is committed to providing a fair, equitable, respectful, and harassment-free environment for all 2023 SPSP Convention attendees.

WHAT IS AN OMBUDS?

An Ombuds is a person trained in conflict resolution who is independent of SPSP and has no other role in the Society.

Organizations have found that people are often more willing to report concerns when an Ombuds is available, and SPSP is committed to improving reporting options for convention attendees. This service is confidential and a completely anonymized report will be provided to the leadership to summarize trends after the convention.

WHY WOULD I CALL THE OMBUDS?

To obtain advice and consultation regarding any concerns relating to fairness, equity, respect, or harassment that may arise during the convention.

The ombuds is available to listen to any concerns you may have regarding unwelcome behavior, including incidents and allegations of harassment.

HOW CAN I CONTACT THE OMBUDS?

During their office hours February 22-25, 2023 via phone or email through March 11, 2023. Email ombuds@spsp.org or call (949) 293-7515.

- 9:00a-12:00p EST
- 2:00p-4:00p EST
- 6:30p-8:30p EST

WHO WILL BE PROVIDING THE OMBUDS SERVICES?

Kathleen H. Canul is an ombudsperson and mediator currently serving several organizations as an annual meeting and organizational ombudsperson.

Kathleen earned both a Ph.D. and M.S. in Clinical Psychology from Washington State University and a B.A. in Psychology from the University of California, Irvine. She is a certified mediator and a member of the International Ombudsman Association (IOA).
