Specific Information Requested by Individual Preconferences

Conflict and Conflict Resolution

Please briefly describe how this research connects to the theme of conflict or conflict resolution.

Emotion

- Where is your institution/organization located?
 - Inside the US
 - Outside the US
- Please check the box below to indicate you have a financial need and are thus seeking possible complimentary registration. By financial need, we mean that you don't have other options for funding your preconference registration (e.g., you don't have institutional funds to support conference registration; your PI/advisor cannot provide conference registration funds, etc.).
 - Yes, I confirm I qualify based on my financial need.

Existential Psychology

- Are you an active member of ISSEP (issep.org)?
 - Yes
 - No
- If you wish to be considered for one or more awards (e.g., innovation award; diversity award), please identify the awards and briefly explain how you meet the criteria.

Gender

Check yes if you would like your poster to be considered for the Student Poster Award. Finalists selected for the award will be notified in mid-December and be asked to submit a 3-5 minute video presenting their poster by early January. The winner will be notified in late January and will have the opportunity to give a brief presentation of their work during the Preconference. – Yes

Group Processes and Intergroup Relations

Please consider my work for early career data blitz (Group processes and intergroup relations) – Yes, consider my work.

Health

Do you want to be considered for the Outstanding Trainee Flash Talk Award? If so, please upload a copy of your current CV/resume in the submission portal. Note: Only trainees (i.e., post-docs, graduate students, undergraduate students, post-bacc RAs) are eligible for this award.

Judgment & Decision Making

- Presentation format will be a single option for posters/data blitz. Depending on scheduling, the top posters may be chosen for a data blitz-style talk in lieu of a poster.
- In lieu of abstracts in the submission portal, please upload one 200-word max abstract along with one figure or table of data as a .pdf file (within the submission portal).

Psychology of Extremism

What is your area of research?

Psychology of Media and Technology

- Please describe your method and its suitability for answering your research question.
- Will you be presenting the same project you are submitting for this preconference at SPSP's main conference?
 - Yes
 - No

Sexuality

- If you selected more than one presentation preference, please indicate your preferred presentation format (please note that preferences are not guaranteed).

Sustainability

- The preconference will be held virtually in Western Standard Time in the US (PT) on Wednesday, February 7. Please enter your time zone and the hours you would be available to present on that day (to the best of your ability).
- Which conference topic stream does your submission fall under?
 - (a) individual (bottom-up) approaches
 - (b) structural (top-down) approaches
 - (c) combined approaches (both bottom-up and top-down)
- Please provide 3 keywords that best describe your research, separated by a semicolon

Advancing LGBTIQ+ Research Across the Globe

Because we are expecting participants from different continents and time zones, we aim to structure the preconference so that scholars can join for either the morning session, the afternoon session, or both sessions. Please indicate which session you can attend:

- I can attend only the morning session (8:30-12:15 PDT)
- I can attend only the afternoon session (13:00-18:00 PDT)
- I can attend both sessions (8:30-18:00 PDT)

We will ask senior scholars to provide feedback for early career scholars and scholars from underrepresented countries in an informal setting. You will be able to discuss your ideas, ongoing-projects, or difficulties. Are there any senior scholars that you would like to receive feedback from? Please keep the regional diversity (we aim to invite seniors from all continents and various backgrounds) in mind. Please add their name, email address, university (if known), and country.
