confidential, neutral, informal, independent guidance

The Society for Personality and Social Psychology is committed to providing a fair, equitable, respectful, and harassment-free environment for all SPSP 2024 Convention attendees.

What is an Ombuds?

An Ombuds is a person trained in conflict resolution who is independent of SPSP and has no other role in the Society.

A safe, off the record resource for meeting attendees to help resolve conflicts, problematic issues or concerns.

Why would I call the Ombuds?

To obtain advice and consultation regarding any concerns relating to fairness, equity, respect, or harassment that may arise during the convention.

The ombuds is available to listen to any concerns you may have regarding unwelcome behavior, including incidents and allegations of harassment.

How can I Contact the Ombuds?

During their office hours February 7-10, 2024 via phone or email through February 24, 2024. Email ombuds@spsp.org or call 949.293.7515.

- 9:00am-12:00pm PST
- 2:00pm-4:00pm PST
- 6:30pm-8:30pm PST

Who will be providing the Ombuds services?

Kathleen H. Canul is an ombudsperson and mediator currently serving several organizations as an annual meeting and organizational ombudsperson.

Kathleen earned both a Ph.D. and M.S. in Clinical Psychology from Washington State University and a B.A. in Psychology from the University of California, Irvine. She is a certified mediator and a member of the International Ombudsman Association (IOA).
